JUNIORS OF BEATTY SEND CONTRIBUTION

The Junior Red Cross of Beatty has sent in twenty-two knitted eye bandages and a large number of paper dolls. The eye bandages will go to the hospitals and the dolls to the little children of France who so rarely see a toy.

A nation-wide contest is in progress in the Junior Red Cross for the best plans for hospital furniture and games. Tonopah has already entered. The drawings were made by Tim Ford and were so beautifully executed that Governor Boyle has asked that a set of the drawings be sent to him. The ideas embodied are strikingly original.

The Young Ladies' sodality of St. Patrick's church will hold a card party with prizes Friday night at Knights of Columbus Hall.

FORMER LOCAL NURSE SUCCEUMBS TO CANCER

While a messenger was coming to Tonopah to secure the services of a physician for Mrs. I. N. Goldsworthy of Berlin, the patient died. The funeral occurred today with interment in the local cemetery near the old home of the deceased.

Mrs. Goldsworthy was suffering from cancer and some time ago submitted to an operation by Dr. Mackenzie at a Reno hospital where she remained until it was thought a permanent cure had been effected and she returned to her home. A relapse occurred and Mrs. Goldsworthy was urged to return to Reno for a further consultation but she evinced a desire to remain at home with the company of friends since the symptoms were not of an alarming nature. Thursday the weakness became pronounced and Dan Johnson volunteered to come to Tonopah to bring back medical assistance. On his arrival he found a telegram telling of the death and reported the facts to Justice Dunneath as he thought an inquest might be necessary. The coroner after hearing the circumstances waived the inquest and gave the necessary permit for burial.

Mrs. Goldsworthy was well known throughout the southern part of the state as Mrs. Chapman, a trained nurse, who had had considerable experience in Rhyolite in the early days of that camp. When Dr. Grigsby removed to Tonopah Mrs. Chapman came here and was appointed matron of the Western Federation of Miners hospital and held the position until six years ago when she married Mr. Goldsworthy and established her home at Berlin where her husband was in charge of a quicksilver property. She was about 50 years of age.

DEATH CLAIMS WORTHY WIFE AND MOTHER

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Minnie J. Trout, wife of L. L. Trout, who had been suffering for three weeks from an attack of pneumonia, passed to her reward at 4:30 o'clock. The demise came as a shock to the family as the members had been led to believe that the patient was rapidly recovering and was well on the way to convalescence. Mrs. Trout had been pronounced out of danger when heart complications set in and the end came quickly. The heart action had been so weakened by disease that when the crisis had been bridged a weakness was superinduced that caused death.

Mrs. Trout was 45 years of age and born in Flint, Mich., whence her parents emigrated to Colorado when she was still a child and later removing to Nevada of which state she was a resident for the past ten years. Five years of that time were spent in Tonopah. She is survived by a husband, three daughters and three sons. The former are Mrs. Thomas Dobbs, Tonopah; Mrs. Neil Easton and Mrs. E. L. Chappelle of Austin. The sons are D. K. and Lester Trout of Tonopah and Roy Trout of Ely.

The Austin members of the family arrived at midnight and the Ely son is expected tonight. The funeral will be held from the Presbyterian church at 4:30 tomorrow afternoon.

FIRST IN THE FIELD WITH APPEAL TO DEMOCRATIC VOTERS OF NEVADA

Charles R. Evans, president of the Wall Street Copper company, operating the principal mine at Luning, comes out in today's issue of the Bonanza with a card declaring his candidacy for congress on the Democratic ticket. Mr. Evans has been identified with the mining development of southern Nevada ever since the first rush into this section and has at all times given freely of his money to help prospectors and miners in opening producing properties. If every time Charlie Evans gave a grubstake to a friend from the hills could be counted by direct financial results the cheerful giver would be one of the richest men in the country. Needless to state most of these investments were fruitless of returns but that did not alter the generosity of Mr. Evans who continued to give wherever he found a man deserving his support.

Having made a success of a business venture in Tonopah Mr. Evans was among the first to try his luck in the new camp of Manhattan which at the time was engrossing the attraction of San Francisco capital. There he became interested in the Briggs & Evans lease on the Dexter group from which he netted a handsome fortune. The lease was transferred later to other parties and the former lessee engaged in general business in Manhattan where he remained until the lure of Goldfield called him to that camp in 1907. Here, again success crowned his investment notwithstanding the fact that the peak of the boom had passed and business had settled down to a normal basis. The easy going life of a business man was not fully to the liking of Mr. Evans, who kept pouring his profits into the hills in quest of another Mohawk mine. However, it was not until three years ago that he found what he wanted in the Wall Street group back in an almost lawless location near Luning. The returns from samples promised well and Evans decided to make this his final stand. It was no easy game for the country was rugged and it required big money and plenty of determination to wrest returns from the copper claims which eventually began yielding at a rate that brought its own reward by placing the congressional candidate on Easy street. The company has over 100 men on its payroll and is regarded as one of the leaders of Mineral county.

Personally "Charlie" Evans is an admirable type of the alert business man with keen blue eyes that see through the most complex business proposition at a glance and his friendship once extended will endure to the end of time.

VITAL STATISTICS FOR MONTH APRIL

Dr. C. J. Richards, health registrar, reports only twelve deaths in all Nye county during the month of April, notwithstanding alarming reports circulated, including one suicide and victim of railroad accident. The list follows:

Fulmer, 42, tuberculosis; Horace Fletcher, 53, paralysis; Owen Williams, 67, heart failure; Harry J. Gomm, 26, pneumonia; Thomas J. Honey, 38, congestion of lungs; Herbert Hicks, 31, pneumonia; Charles J. Hayden, 33, pneumonia; Mike Maria, 25, railroad accident.

FIRST IN THE FIELD FOR THE RED CROSS

Local No. 638, of the International Association of Machinists, has the distinction of being the first subscriber to come across for the impending drive of the Red Cross set for the twentieth of this month. The boys could not wait any longer as the treasury was bulging with wealth and, just to relieve the strain, they ordered William Davist, the secretary, to withdraw $25 and deliver them to the Red Cross.

The order has received an invitation to attend the conference of war activities to be held in Reno May 16th and regrets that it is impossible to send a representative as there is not an idle man in the union and every man is wanted at his post.

The first sale ever announced by The Specialty Shop, beginning Monday, May 13. Hats 1-3 to 1-2 off. Suits, Coats, Dresses and Waists 1-3 off. All fresh spring styles and splendid opportunities for early season buying.

AMUSEMENTS

EDITH STOREY AT THE BUTLER

Edith Storey makes her initial appearance under the Metro banner tonight at the Butler in "The Eyes of Mystery," a smashing love and adventure story filled with mystery and romance, and fully worthy of the talents of this brilliant screen star. Edith Storey is one of the best-loved women in America—and "The Eyes of Mystery" will add hosts of admirers to her already lengthy list. As Carmichael in this thrilling five-reel photodrama, Miss Storey is obliged to swim, shoot, ride and do all the "stunts" in which this popular star excels.

What would be another actress' despair is merely Edith Storey's opportunity—she revels in the chance to display her athletic ability. The main attraction, however, is her treatment of the story itself. There is suspense, excitement and then—complete satisfaction, in "The Eyes of Mystery." It is replete with thrills and interest and the star, Edith Storey, encounters many exciting adventures. The other feature today is another one of those side-splitting Sunshine comedies, entitled "Her Husband's Wife." It is in two reels and there is thirty minutes of laughter guaranteed. Tomorrow Alice Brady in "The Divorce Game" and Wm. Duncan and Carol Holloway in "Vengeance and the Woman."

Do not miss seeing Elsie Ferguson on Monday, the 13th.
